

MORTAL PERIL

Line up:

Jan Radermacher - bass/vocals (founder)

Lukas Haines - guitar (since 2016)

Pete Rode – guitar (since 2014)

Jonas Linnartz - drums (founder)

Biography:

As Jan and Jonas formed Mortal Peril in 2010, it was intended to make a classic-rock project. But names of bands sometimes evolve their own life and so the first output became a bastard of metal and hardcore. The music continued developing, also due to some changes in the line-up, into the style the band itself calls heavythrash today. Partly this mixture of bay-area thrash and british metal is to be heard on their first longplayer. The style was even more carved out on their second release in 2016. In 2019 Mortal Peril get ready for their third strike and they will make heavythrash their trademark. Digital Idol will be released by ftwctp records on vinyl. The band will take care for the distribution on streaming platforms and the cd-release itself.
