Di Meschugeles – "They make your soul sing, dance, weep, and laugh!"

Enlarge image (@ colourbox.com) On June 16, 2011, Ambassador Dr. Georg Witschel and his wife Sabine invited the public to attend a garden party at their Rockcliffe residence. More than four hundred guests were present to sample German delicacies, beers, and wines in an idyllic settings – and above all to witness a thrilling performance by the internationally known German klezmer band Di Meshugeles. During an entire evening, the audience was awed and captured by the musicians' vast repertoire, which alternated between ecstatic, rollicking rhythms and slow, contemplative melodies. The Ambassador and his wife could be frequently spotted whirling on the dance floor, inspiring many other guests to do the same. The encores were numerous; the applause thunderous.
