

Paul Harriman + Band

Paul Harriman tritt mit einem gemischten Programm aus Cover- und eigenen Songs auf. Er verfügt über eine entsprechende Bühnenerfahrung, hat in den Jahren seiner Musikkarriere mit vielen namhaften Musikern auf der Bühne gestanden.

Geboren 1953 in Doncaster, Yorkshire. Groß gezogen mit "Beat" und geschult in Rock, Rhythm and Blues, Paul spielte im "Club-Circuit" Norden Englands direkt nach dem Schulabschluss.

Er tourte weiter durch den U.K, Europa, Skandinavien und den Nahen Osten mit verschiedene Rock und Soul Bands u.a. 70iger Soul Star Jimmy James und Big Business, bei wem er zum ersten mal Glen Turner begegnete...

Paul zog nach Deutschland, und traf dort in 1987 Bert Smaak, mit dem er weitere Tourneen und Plattenaufnahmen machte mit Acoustic Alchemy, Hazel O`Connor, Anne Haigis, Purple Schulz, Edo Zanki und vielen anderen.

■ Paul Harriman's Solo Project

At the moment I'm recording my "solo" album in Small World Studio, having spent some time collecting material and writing my own songs. "Northern Tilt", Colin Weavill (guitar), Klaus Marquardt (violin), Andy Schoy (drums) and Paul Harriman (bass) make up the nucleus of the recording group along with co-producer/guitarist Oliver Utzt.

But, it occured to me that since I've worked with so many great musicians in my 23 years in Germany, why not ask them to contribute! Of course we started with the drummers, and so far Bodo Schopf, Bert Smaak, Flo Dauner and Wolf Simon have come along to Small World to lay down tracks. Colin and Ollie have recorded acoustic guitars and "Raab Band" and "DSDS" guitarist Philip Niessen is due to come in early January. Meanwhile I'm practicing my singing and working on lyrics and vocal harmony parts. Soon we'll be starting to arrange string parts with Klaus, and Andy is also due to make an appearance in January.

Apart from my own songs, I've chosen to do versions of 3 songs from my old friend Fraser Cameron who tragically died in March of this year. Also, a song from 70's British cult band "Patto" and surprise surprise!... 1 song in German. I'm not yet ruling out the possibility of inserting a "John Hiatt" cover either, he is after all one of my all time favourites.

■ Harriman's Northern Tilt

Northern Tilt is, Colin Weavill (guitar), Klaus Marquardt (violin), Andy Schoy (drums) and Paul Harriman (bass).

■ Pete Haycock's True Blues
