

WAR WITH THE NEWTS

„A 90s alternative foundation is here with well dosed flanger spokes, a decent hardcore-edge, as well as a good portion of madness enriched and the bottom line sounds just totally cool.“
— Zitronenhund

War with the Newts is a punk band based in Berlin. Founded in late 2016, they published their first EP "Dead Eyes" in March 2017. With Juan Alberto (Spain) on the bass, Alexandre (France) on drums and Kostia (Ukraine) singing and on the guitar, they rock out to pull Satan out of hell.

Inspired by bands like The Bronx and Gallows, they deliver a loud and powerful mixture of melancholic melodies and aggressive roar.

Sounds like: The Bronx, Frank Carter.
Set-Länge: 30-45 Minuten.

In November 2016, Juan Alberto, Alexandre and Kostia were in a bar in Berlin together. Named after the same name satirical science fiction novel, the band's name War with the Newts was agreed on. A few months later the guys gathered at the old airport Berlin-Tempelhof to record four songs. In March 2017, their first EP "Dead Eyes" was published.
