The rock'n'roll sensation Dirty Crows from Luxembourg is a four men desert-rock band formed in late 2010. Inspired by bands such as Kyuss, Queens of the Stone Age and Nirvana, they vowed to give their passion to rock'n'roll.

The somber, dark and unique wall of sound, coupled with a badass storm piper bass machine, driving, down tuned drums and the croaky voice of the frontman is typical for the band's sound.

After months of painful yet creative pre-production sessions in a cold abandoned milk factory, they entered Jan Kerscher's Ghost City Recordings studio in Bavaria, Germany in February 2012 to record their debut album Got no chance against Rock'n'Roll.

The video of their single Eat it, Baby!, made by the filmmakers Daniel Oliveira Carneiro and Luc Bonert was released in early May 2012 before hitting the stage for their album release at Food for your Senses Festival in Tuntange, Luxembourg, where they played with international acts such as Kraftklub, Cro, Go back to the Zoo, Lys and The Hundred in the Hands.

Sofar now they've shared the stage with established bands such as Girlschool, Gamma Bomb, Jennifer Rostock, Madsen, Enemies, Demi Mondaine and many more.

The band's goal for the next years is to play as many shows as possible in Luxembourg and abroad.

"This crow has become a really dirty one; it behaves like an insidious rabid snake. You never know how and when it will attack. Unexpected breaks, pauses, changes of direction make this work unpredictable and distances itself from a classic 90s stoner record."

"One thing is for sure, this record is meant to be played aloud!"

Denis Schumacher - El Gore

"Ganz andere Töne erwartete die Besucher dann beim Open-Air-Rock-Konzert auf der Kluuster, wo die Lokalmatadoren Dirty Crows als Vorband mit ihrer sehr gitarrenbass- und drumlastigen Musik die Zuschauer schon mal anheizten."

mywort.lu

"Un condensé d'énergies positives combinant la puissance jumelée des deux guitares, une basse vrombissante, une batterie omniprésente sans oublier un puissant chant rocaillieux qui sait se faire hargneux quand c'est nécessaire"

Jeanmid - Stoner & More

"Die Musik der Dirty Crows ist genau, wie Desert-Rock sein soll: sehr gitarren-, bass- und drumlastig."

Wort.lu

"Gerade der Gesang hat es mir so richtig angetan, denn neben dem raven Organ des Frontmannes war auch die Stimme des Drummers sehr oft zu vernehmen. Die Gitarren röhren druckvoll aus den Lautsprechern, und der Bass hämmerte so mächtig wie präzise auf die Zuschauer ein. Da ich zuvor noch nicht mit Dirty Crows in Berührung gekommen war, bin ich wirklich froh, sie an diesem Abend gesehen zu haben. Mir hat der Ausflug in die dreieckigen Gefilde des Stoner Rock jedenfalls wirklich gut gefallen."

Luc François - iamhavoc
