elmar rose bass/vocals
chrit jacquorie guitar
johannes twielemeier drums

henk jr. were formed in spring 2005.

henk jr. is lo-fi guitar based indie-pop with sparkling instrumental touches and narrative vocals.

From the beginning the band has created an idiosyncratic, guitar-orientated sound with intensely heart-tugging lyrics and melodies that are sometimes stupendous, sometimes laid-back, sometimes apocalyptic. File under heavy mellow.

henk jr. confidently bristle with many-sided and smart indie-pop that deserves to be enjoyed by "the good boys and the grown-up girls" henk jr. has played several club-gigs and festivals in germany, belgium and the netherlands. The band is about to release their first 5-track-EP recorded in march 2007.

henk jr. is new. henk jr. is pop. henk jr. is hope.
