

TASTE OF GREED – Melodic Thrash Metal from Hamburg

Since 2013 Taste of Greed are performing kick-ass Melodic Thrash Metal. The five lads from Hamburg create a raging but virtuous Thrash bastard, which is feasting on influences from pure, aggressive music as well as from modern and more progressive sounds. A combination of brutal up-tempo riffs, heavy breakdowns and furious shouts and growls are clashing on piercing melodic parts and double-guitar leads. This meal served is surely not easily digestible at first, but in the end the pure combination of the finest ingredients of the contemporary Metal cuisine whets your appetite and leaves you craving for more!
