

ESCAPE

- F R O M W O N D E R L A N D -

Through ups and downs, Escape From Wonderland have proven to be resilient and now the Southern German Metalcore act is at its highest point of performance it has ever been. But they are only getting started.

After taking some time off during the pandemic the band has reshaped their identity, ultimately joining forces with producer Nils Lesser from Vaultroom Productions to produce new material after the 2019's EP release. And with an experienced producer by their side the band is now pushing beyond their previous creative boundaries. The newly found direction takes influences from early 2000's Metalcore and fuses it with modern electronic sounds, has vocals ranging from Pop Punk-ish to Deathcore-esque and infuses their songs with a sense of grandeur.

After signing a record deal with Drakkar Entertainment, Escape From Wonderland released their first full length album PIECES on November 3, 2023.
