

THE BLACK PROTEUS

Biography

The Black Proteus is a strong Viennese Melange that unites Slovenian, Austrian and Turkish heritages to one single intercultural squad.

The band's first big milestone, the EP We Meet Again, was released in 2018.

This time the crew hit the reset button. The result? Jump-inducing analog 8-bit rock riffs combined with memorable melodies and kitchen-towel-covered drum beats that will make you nod along. The band wrapped their work into 10 songs and called their album Loading...

The Black Proteus are:

Matt, Matjaž Goričan - vocals, guitar
Roman Badstuber - bass
Temmuz Işı Özerkan - guitar
Sašo Corso - drums

The first song of the album Soul for Sale appeared in 2021 and showed the band exploring the depths of the cosmos. The crew finally returned to planet Earth. The catch: they landed in 1921.

Their return was documented in their second single and video Becoming Someone.

Both songs are a glimpse into Loading... and hint at the band's musical mindset which is 'in with the old, out with the new'.

Proteus

/'prəʊtɪəs/

1. a versatile, mutable Greek god of waters, noted for his ability to assume many different forms. From his features comes the adjective 'protean', meaning "versatile", "adaptable", "capable of assuming many forms".
2. a highly interesting blind predatory cave-dwelling salamander with a lifespan of up to 100 years.
