

GREEN TOWER

The member of this progressive band Tanja-Lisa (vocals) and Dirk Thomas (guitar) form an ingenious mixture inviting the audience to a musical journey full of variety. Hard rock, folk and classical music add up to a fifth element which we would like you to listen to and enjoy

The studied and professional guitarist Dirk Thomas who has been fully devoting himself to guitar since childhood has been playing in a lot of bands, published several CDs and gave concerts in England and Africa. With Green Tower at last, he has the opportunity of passionately passing on his very own music in all its variety and virtuosity to the intrigued listener.

Vocalist Tanja Lisa essentially contributes with her creativity, power and her unique voice to the music of Green Tower in an outstanding empathic way. She/Tanja-Lisa looks back to a both longlasting and extensive band and choir experience what makes her simply irreplaceable.
