Berdon Kirksaether & The Twang Bar Kings

Berdon Kirksaether is a Norwegian composer, guitarist, singer and music producer. He is a veteran on the Norwegian blues scene, most notably through his work in CIA, arguably one of the finest blues bands in the country in their prime.

Berdon Kirksaether & The Twang Bar Kings brings together 3 of the 4 founding members of CIA. Stein Tumert (bass) and Roy Hanssen (drums) is joining forces with Berdon to bring back the energy and groove that made CIA one of the most popular blues and soul acts in Norway in the nineties. In addition, Erik Gabrielsen (guitar) is adding his mark on the new album "The Voodoo Sessions – Live at Down Under". See the show on YouTube!

What some folks said about the previous album "Latenighters":

"This album is about blues guitar, about jazzy blues and about r&b with exotic Latino and soul-jazz grooves. An exciting, lyrical and beautiful album, played in a relaxing manner, and with a feeling at times like a journey through three-dimensional "pictures". Johnny Andreassen – Blues News Norway - www.bluesnews.no

"Overall this is an imaginative album, with some very fine musicianship and arrangements. It is the jazzy qualities that give Kirksaether's compositions their character. Several of the cuts would make very fine movie soundtracks. The album has a jazzy sensibility overlaid by a band that really does know it's blues". Mike Garner - Blues News New Zealand - www.blues.co.nz
